Biography

Kobi A. Webb is a litigation attorney with Ireland Stapleton Pryor & Pascoe, PC. In her practice she focuses on complex business litigation at both the trial and appellate level. Ms. Webb also advocates on behalf of clients in the areas of administrative property tax matters, real estate transactions and issues related to business formation and licensing.

Prior to joining Ireland Stapleton, Ms. Webb graduated from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law, where she earned a certificate in Corporate and Commercial Law, served as a senior staff editor on the University of Denver Water Law Review, and worked as a student attorney in the Civil Litigation Clinic. Before entering law school, Ms. Webb spent four years in government service as a Nuclear Weapons Technician in the United States Air Force.

Testimonials

- "Kobi & K.C. at Ireland-Stapleton assisted me when dealing with another company using my letterhead/trademark/tradename to create fraudulent documents. Both were very helpful when preparing documents and discussing my options. I will absolutely recommend this firm to any/all who are in need of sound legal advice." Client Review, Martindale-Hubbell, January 31, 2017
