

Charles L. Borgman

OF COUNSEL

PHONE 303-628-3638
EMAIL cborgman@irelandstapleton.com
OFFICE Denver

Chuck Borgman is a seasoned real estate attorney assisting developers, investors, lenders, housing authorities and nonprofits in the development, financing and operation of real estate projects in Colorado, with an emphasis on affordable housing projects. Mr. Borgman is an Of Counsel attorney with Ireland Stapleton.

Mr. Borgman joins the firm after a distinguished career in private practice and as General Counsel of the Colorado Housing and Finance Authority where he was a member of the executive management team, advised the board of directors on corporate governance matters and oversaw the legal, compliance and internal audit functions. As General Counsel, Mr. Borgman also advised the Low Income Housing Tax Credit group in the development and application of the annual Qualified Allocation Plan in the awarding of tax credits. As part of his role at Ireland Stapleton, Mr. Borgman is currently serving as part-time General Counsel for Habitat for Humanity of Metro Denver, Inc.

Legal Experience

- General Counsel, Colorado Housing and Finance Authority
- Regional Counsel, North American Title Company
- Private law practice, including tenures as an associate and partner in the Denver office of the Kutak Rock law firm

Memberships

- Colorado Bar Association
- Denver Bar Association

Practice Areas

Real Estate

Bar Admissions

Colorado

Iowa, inactive

Minnesota, inactive

Education

J.D., University of Iowa College of Law, 1973

B.A., University of Iowa, 1970

