

Intellectual Property, Branding & Licensing

Developing, protecting, licensing and promoting our clients' technology are valuable keys to ultimate business success. While technology is constantly changing, our focus has remained the same — to work closely with our clients in planning and implementing strategies to protect and commercially exploit their technology.