OFFICE Denver

Lidiana Rios is an efficient and results-driven complex commercial litigation and regulatory attorney, designing winning legal strategies with an eye towards clients' business goals. Lidiana represents companies and individuals in a wide range of business matters, including governance and contract disputes, trade secrets, unfair competition, and fraud. She can effectively handle dispute resolution, trials, appeals, arbitrations, mediations, and regulatory proceedings. In addition to her litigation practice, she advises investors, creditors, developers, intellectual property holders, and other license-holders in regulatory compliance matters. Lidiana has experience representing Spanish-speaking business clients in all of these areas.

Lidiana is also uniquely suited for international business disputes and legal matters, having conducted corporate due diligence, legal drafting, investigations, and resolving disputes in partnership with foreign law firms for transnational clients.

Before joining Ireland Stapleton, Lidiana clerked for former Colorado Supreme Court Justice (now 10th Circuit Judge) Allison H. Eid. She also clerked at the Municipal Operations department of the Denver City Attorney's Office, and interned with Denver Mayor John Hickenlooper's Office of Sustainability.

Legal Experience

- Obtained a favorable interpretation of Delaware law from the Colorado Supreme Court, resulting in compelled deposition of a high-profile public figure.
- Reached a favorable mediation resolution for a housing authority client, in a dispute with an insurance company regarding coverage for methamphetamine testing and repairs.
- Prevailed at the summary judgment stage on behalf of a family-owned recycling company in a contract dispute against a multinational electric utility company.
- Represented a multinational engineering firm in a transnational trade secrets and usurpation of business opportunity dispute with former officers and employees, winning both at trial and arbitration.
- Successfully represented a national marijuana packaging, labeling, and branding company in trade secrets and racketeering litigation.
- Prevailed at trial on behalf of a global tax services provider in interference with business contract litigation with a former franchisee and employee.
- Represented employee agents in a compensation and trade secrets dispute against a national life insurance company.
- Litigated on behalf of a global financial services firm in disputes related to mortgage origination and subprime mortgage investments.
- Represented a U.S. state in interstate compact water litigation before the U.S. Supreme Court.
- Successfully represented defendant accountancy firm in a 5-day federal jury trial adjudicating a breach of fiduciary duty dispute brought by a former client and obtained a defense verdict finding the defendant did not commit fiduciary breaches.
